INTRODUCTION

Dani Buricescu is a seasoned Digital Transformation and Programme Leader, specialising in large-scale system integration, data-driven innovation, and cross-border change delivery. With over a decade of experience across financial services, fintech, and insurance, she has successfully led high-impact initiatives for organisations like ING, Allianz, and FastForward.ai. Dani excels in driving platform migrations, AI-enabled solutions, and legacy system decommissioning—ensuring measurable outcomes and stakeholder alignment. Her strengths lie in programme governance, Agile delivery, and value realisation, combining a consulting mindset with hands-on technical insight. With global experience and a people-first approach, Dani empowers organisations to modernise, optimise, and future-proof their operations.

HOW I CAN HELP YOUR BUSINESS

- Digital & Data Transformation – Drive end-to-end transformation programmes that modernise platforms, enhance data quality, and enable business agility across global operations.
- System Integration & Migration – Lead complex system integrations and legacy decommissioning with minimal disruption—ensuring seamless transitions and long-term value.
- Interim Programme Leadership – Step into senior delivery roles during critical change periods—providing structure, clarity, and strategic direction across teams and stakeholders.
- Governance, Risk & Reporting – Strengthen delivery oversight with robust governance frameworks, risk mitigation strategies, and transparent reporting through tools like Power BI and JIRA.
